LCF CSR EXPO 2010

Synergizing for Change

July 14-15, 2010 - SMX Convention Center

Conference set

THE LEAGUE of Corporate Foundations (LCF) recently announced the holding of the 9th annual LCF Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Expo. The event themed "Synergizing for Change" is a two-day conference and exhibit featuring the latest trends, models and practices on CSR. It will be held on July 14 and 15 at the SMX Convention Center, Pasay City. The two-day event will feature a conference with plenary sessions on CSR and Asian values, Public-Private Partnerships, Responding to the Challenge of Change and special sessions on education, enterprise development, global standards for CSR, utilizing social media and measuring impact. The exhibits will be open to the general public and will feature over 50 booths showcasing corporations, nongovernment organizations and other partner organizations with CSR programs. A free lecture series will compliment the exhibits and will offer 'CSR 101' sessions for students and other interested parties. Interested delegates, exhibitors and sponsors may visit <http://www.teamasia.com/events/lcfsrexpo2010/>.
